Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna
Master of Arts in

Human Rights & Conflict Management

XII EDITION
A.Y. 2013-2014
PISA - ITALY

DESCRIPTION

The Master of Arts in Human Rights and Conflict Management is designed to provide students from different cultures and backgrounds with a deep understanding of the linkages between human rights and conflict management theory and practice. The curriculum, strongly field oriented, prepares participants for working with NGOs, governments, aid agencies, the UN system and regional organisations, also operating in the context of complex emergencies and joint operations.

STRUCTURE

The Master is a one-year post-graduate programme for which attendance is compulsory. It starts on January 13, 2014 and runs until spring 2015. The syllabus of the Master Programme, in addition to individual studying and the preparation of a final written project (project work), will cover about 440 hours of classroom lectures and 480 hours of internship. Classroom lectures are from Monday to Friday and run from 13 January to 31 July 2014. Internship lasts three or more months starting from August/September 2014.
